CAPITAL WOMEN

Message from the Co-President

Time is definitely going by fast. March is almost over and here comes spring. Spring is the time when plants start blooming again and it is also the time of new beginnings. So I personally started a new initiative called STEM Santa Fe. It is a new non-profit focused on STEM out-of-school activities and mainly mentoring youth to enter STEM competitions. So be careful when you see me and ask about STEM Santa Fe. I can talk for an hour non-stop about all my vision for this initiative. Of course I got my inspiration working as the STEM Chair for our branch and organizing Careers & Curiosity in Math and Science and Expanding your horizons conferences. Anyone interested in taking over the STEM Chair position? Please connect with me if you are interested.

I want to draw your attention to our one and only Annual Business Meeting on May 11. This is an important meeting and we need as many members as possible to show up. Consider coming to the tour of the Santa Fe Institute at 10:30, or just come straight to the meeting at 11:30. We will vote on the new slate of officers and on the updated bylaws. Yep, we need to update our bylaws and the slate of officers to be elected is based on these new bylaws. A draft is in the works and we will be sending you a final draft to review beforehand.

Our slate of officers nominated for 2016-2018 is:

Sandra Bradley – Finance officer

Maxine Davenport – Secretary

Jeanne Patrick – AAUW Funds Chair

Judy Kares – AAUW-UNM Scholarship Endowment Chair

See you April 16 and May 11 hopefully!

Lina Germann
AAUW-Santa Fe co-President

Adelante Dinner March 9th 2016

Ten Santa Fe AAUW members joined together to provide dinner for the parents and children of the Santa Fe schools Adelante program. Over 30 parents and children enjoyed a dinner of salad, pasta, meatballs and dessert at Sweeney School on March 9th. The Adelante program is

APRIL PROGRAM
Saturday, April 16
11:30 am - 1 :30 pm
 Midtown Bistro
 901 West San Mateo Road

Our 2015-2016 AAUW scholarship winner, Emma Elliott Smith, comes from a Santa Fe family immersed in math and science. She graduated from UC-Santa Cruz, summa cum laude in 2014 and is in the second year of her biology PhD program.

11:30 am: Gather and order from the menu

Noon: Eat and Socialize

12:45-1:30: Emma's Talk and Q&A

Emma will speak about what she is learning and her conservation research project. The Scholarship Committee had a most enjoyable get acquainted lunch with her recently and we think you will be as inspired by her vision of her future.

Quoting her application she said, "My 17-years experience in dance one of the Santa Fe programs that AAUW Santa Fe supports. Over 1100 children in Santa Fe are identified as being “homeless”. The Adelante program provides assistance with housing, clothing, food, tutoring and employment. Volunteers are always needed to provide food, tutoring and financial donations.

Adelante was started in Santa Fe in 2003 to help families struggling to acquire a better quality of life. Families were identified who were homeless or living in sheds or cars. Or many times 15 people would be living in a 1 bedroom apartment. Gaile Herling was able to obtain funding to acquire an office and meeting space to meet with the families. Soon a program named Juntos was started to provide meals for the families. Different organizations take turns providing meals for the family. In 2015 Adelante was awarded the Pinon Award by the Santa Fe Community Foundation.

and choreography has given me an appreciation for the importance of imagination and an appreciation for the importance of imagination and creativity in science.“

Emma will share who has inspired her and how she got to where she is today, her academic goals, and what she envisions her ideal career and job will be. She wanted to get our scholarship to offset the costs associated with her fieldwork in Alaska and the ability to attend scientific conferences such as her early April scientific conference in Japan.

We learned that Emma already has been a volunteer for our organization, as a presenter at Expanding Our Horizons program for girls in September.

The meeting room seats up to 30 so please join us for a wonderful lunch and to meet Emma, a very engaging and focused young woman.

AAUW Santa Fe is proud to support this program that helps needy families in Santa Fe. Thanks go out to our members who helped provide dinner to these needy families. Special acknowledgement goes to Julie Vollmer, Riette Mugelston, Sandra Bradley, Esther Milnes, Sarah Fassett, Barbara Asarch Aronowitz, Sally Sower, Enid Tidwell, Connie Peterson, Cathy Licata, Lina Germann and Jeanne Patrick.

Thinking Back:

On March 22, 1970 the Equal Rights Amendment was passed and sent to the states. Hawaii was the first state to ratify it. New Mexico did ratify the amendment but it fell short by just three states.

Thinking Ahead:

The 2016 Primary Election will also be for NM Legislators. Here is the list to start thinking about who you will vote for.

NM Senate: Both Peter Wirth and Nancy Rodriguez are running unopposed.

NM House:

- District 45 - Jim R. Trujillo
- District 46 - Carl Trujillo
- District 47 - Brian Egolf
Roger A. Gonzales
- District 48 - Jeff Varela
Paul Campos
Linda Trujillo
- District 50 - Mathew McQueen
Andrew Homer
